CRA AGENDA ITEM REQUEST

ITEM: Consideration to approve the Operational Plan for the A. D. Harris Learning Village, 819 East 11th Street, Panama City, Florida

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: The A. D. Harris Learning Village was purchased by the Downtown North CRA from the Bay County School District and conceptually engineered and implemented by staff for the provision of a one-stop human services site for the delivery of community based culturally sensitive, multi-generational services to unite the community. The A. D. Harris Learning Village is moving forward in its 3rd reiteration of service delivery.

- The 1st provided a set of services to include a partnership with the Bay County Health Department (Primary Health Clinic), Empower and Enlightenment Center (GED program), United Way (VITA free income tax service); African American Cultural Center; Gulf Coast State College (Computer classes and small business services) and Global Arts (performing arts), e.g.
- The 2nd was the provision of Municipal Government Services. Due to the impact of Hurricane Michael and the current City Hall not being complete, city governmental services were provided at this location. This was the first time in the history of Panama City that City Hall was in Glenwood.

The 3rd reiteration will move forward with your approval of the attached plan.

PROPOSAL
TO
CITY OF PANAMA CITY
FOR
NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION USAGE OF A.D. HARRIS

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Rebuild Bay County, Inc. (RBCI), is submitting a proposal for joint-use agreement in partnership with the City of Panama City. The proposal seeks to request from the City of Panama City the shared use of A.D. Harris Learning Village at 819 E. 11th Street in Panama City for the purpose of serving as a community resilience center and learning complex. RBCI is proposing a phased project approach in 3 distinct phases that leads to a full-scale community resilience complex that will house centralized services, community resiliency resources, and learning tools to support residents and the most vulnerable populations in our area, to assist them in disaster preparation and recovery. The first phase of our proposed stand-up project will focus on food distribution, emergency housing processing, and basic living assistance. While these focus areas have proven to be constant needs of the Bay County community, the ongoing and increasing pandemic impacts highlight the need for a more robust, sustainable way to address these needs now.

Phase I

I. Centralized Feeding Distribution Center

Utilize appropriate rooms and equipment for dry goods/cold food storage, sorting, and boxing for robust food distribution program. There have always been food pantries in the county, however, the need to get food to the community has increased significantly since the start of the pandemic.

- Mobile food pantries throughout the area are inconsistent in their scheduling and most times overwhelmed with the number of households served. Having a permanent site for a more robust food distribution relieves pressure from the mobile food pantries and provides residents in need a steadier food source.
- Distribution site for local pantries to pick up food for distribution at their locations, or on-site.
- Host site for training faith-based organizations to scale-up small pantry operations

Other considerations that require further development include shared-use as a site for a periodic farmer's market, a community garden and nutrition education that includes healthy cooking and eating classes, in partnership with UF/IFAS Extension and Department of Health.

II. Emergency Housing Processing

Receive clients seeking emergency housing. Process requests and provide clients with initial resources required to secure housing. The Community Resource Center (CRC) currently sees approximately 250 – 300 clients monthly 65% of whom require some assistance with obtaining housing. Since the start of the pandemic, that has increased by over 50 %. In November and December 2020 alone, the County expended more than $1,600,000 in housing assistance through the CRC alone (Doorways and Rebuild Bay County) due to COVID-related impacts. With the moratorium for evictions ending at some point and the ongoing housing needs from Hurricane Michael impacted clients, it is expected housing assistance will continue into the foreseeable future as a long-term recovery effort.

Other considerations that require further development include use as a warming shelter, primary/secondary shelter during disasters, and special needs shelter.

III. Basic Living Assistance

Provide centralized location to process residents' requests for basic living assistance. Doorways of Northwest Florida as the Continuum of Care Lead Agency in Bay County, champions this effort through operations at the Community Resource Center (CRC) by conducting a standardized assessment tool for prioritizing and referring clients to appropriate services in our System of Care. In addition to housing services, this includes mainstream benefits such as health care, food stamps, disability benefits, ID cards, budgeting, planning, employment, child care, goal setting and evaluation, and any needed supportive services such as ongoing case management or mental health services. These services are provided as needed with the goal of ensuring self-sufficiency.

IV. Proposed space for Phase I

- Building 4
- Building 6, Cafeteria and kitchen
- Building 10, Gym
- Building 11, Administrative Offices
- Appropriate parking

V. Other Considerations (not all-inclusive)

- Evaluate complex as a permanent site for COVID vaccinations and COVID testing, in partnership with Bay County Emergency Management, the Department of Health, and PanCare
- Will need historical usage data to estimate operating costs
- Security requirements
- Community perception and support
- Staffing requirements

FUTURE PHASES – following successful implementation of Phase I

- Proposed planning timeline Phase II, August 2021
- Proposed planning timeline Phase III, December 2021

PROPOSED AGENCIES/SERVICES

It is expected the complex will house multiple service agencies and organizations, both permanent party and as needed, to provide a variety of services and resources and address un-met needs of disaster impacted residents. While not all inclusive, some are:

- Rebuild Bay County, Inc
- Doorways of Northwest Florida
- Legal Services of North Florida
- Disability services
- Mental health counseling/support
- Other disaster recovery
- Domestic abuse support
- Community Health services
- Insurance guidance services
- Workforce development services

PROPOSED NEXT STEPS

- Full walk-through of the complex
- Determine initial infrastructure requirements
- Request and review data on operating costs
- Allocate spacing for initial stand-up services
